

THEATRICAL

"Our New Minister," a delightful pastoral drama, pleased a fairly large audience at the Academy of Music last night. The play is well staged and is in the hands of a capable company. It made a good impression here early in the season and had the weather been less unfavorable a big crowd would have turned out to greet the company on its second visit.

Gorton's Minstrels Next.

Gorton's Minstrels will appear at the Academy next Friday afternoon and night, with a new and up-to-date production. According to the advance man the wardrobe, stage and scenic effects are new, elaborate and expensive, and the company comprises a number of capable performers.

A street parade will be given at noon on Washington avenue. Prices for the matinee will be 25 and 50 cents and at night the prices will be 25 cents to $1. The advance sale begins at the box office tomorrow morning.

MR. BOOKER TO LAUNCH FRANCHISE

Several Business Men Have Agreed to Back Enterprise, But More Money is Needed.

Mr. G. B. A. Booker, who has an option on the Norfolk State league baseball team, said last night that he was very much encouraged over the outlook for raising the $6,000 necessary to buy the club and bring it here. Several well known business men have agreed to back the enterprise substantially, but more money is needed.

Mr. Booker last night had a long distance telephone talk with Mr. Jake Wells, in Richmond. Mr. Wells said that his brother would hold the offer to Newport News open until Wednesday.

It is understood that several Norfolk parties are after the franchise and will buy it unless Mr. Booker is able to put up the necessary amount. Local fans are very much interested in the matter. A State league team in Newport News would be a great advertisement for the city during the Exposition and this fact will influence those who put up the money as much if not more than the desire to see good baseball games on the Casino.

DELMAS HITS STRAIGHT AND HARD IN ADDRESS

ter by which he might leave her alone in the world—her father dead, her mother unnatural, her husband executed.

The attorney declared that Thaw had no reason to lie to his mother when he told the story in Pittsburgh after his return from Europe. In contrast to the mother of Evelyn Nesbit, Mr. Delmas pictured the mother of Harry Thaw. He reviewed the testimony she gave on the stand and pointed to the love and affection she displayed for her son when he began to display that restlessness which culminated in the tragedy. He spoke in eulogistic terms of her noble character and of the sacrifices she made to lighten the burden and ease the pain of her heartbroken boy.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drought are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold cure and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by The Ideal Pharmacy. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
